

J. Kevin Tumlinson

Education

1996 - 2000 Houston Baptist University Houston, TX
BA, English and Communications

Studied literature and writing as well as verbal communications. Worked in several internships, participated in on-campus groups.

1993 - 1995 Brazosport College Brazosport, TX
Associates, Computer Information Systems

1994 - 1995 Writer's Digest School Cincinnati, OH
Certificate, Creative Writing

- Worked with published, acclaimed author Ardeth Mayhar. Polished and published short fiction.

1991 - 1993 National Education Center Houston, TX
Electronics Engineering

Employment

2000 - * Honor Squadrons International Houston, TX
Associate Producer/Executive Assistant

- Aid in the production of PBS television program, create web site.

1997 - 2000 CompuTalk Radio & Television Houston, TX
Producer

- Produced live, nationally syndicated computer talk radio show, "Tom King's CompuTalk."

1999 - 2000 Boating.com Houston, TX
Editor

- Edited and wrote for nationally oriented webzine.

1997 - * ViewOnline Houston, TX
Editor

- Founded webzine in 1997. Continue to edit and write for publication.

Volunteer Experience

Founder of "AboutVolunteer.com," to be released. Organization focuses on providing an online presence and central resource for volunteer organizations across the U.S.

Awards

- Danny Lee Lawrence Award for Short Fiction.
- Rex Fleming Reader Award for Short Fiction.
- Veterans of Foreign Wars first place award for "Voice of Democracy."